

VELOSO TOURS

DIEGO NAVEIRO

Diego was born in Buenos Aires, Argentina and after a few years working on the International Trade of Grains, he decided to travel around the World and explore its wonders. Finally ended in Kathmandu (Nepal) working in an Adventure & Trekking company in the '80s. He returned to Argentina and found the first Adventure Tour Operator in the region.

Since then He spent 30 years exploring the length and width of Argentina & Chile down to Antarctica developing trips and expeditions. As a pioneer in the adventure travel in South America, He wrote several articles in magazines, newspapers and brochures doing several conferences around the world about the region highlighting the environment and local culture. He Participated in various films for the Australian broadcast TV, BBC and local TV Network also in researches of UK Universities in the Andes, organize several charities in the most isolated areas promoting the local culture and as an advisor for several National and Foreign Organizations.